

Entry Fee: The $225 entry fee includes entry, course maps, narrative directions, drop bag service, bus service, shuttle van service, aid station services, award eligibility, a commemorative shirt, a post-race buffet dinner, and final race results. The maps and course directions are available on this website.

Deadlines: Applications for entry are accepted based on the Wasatch 100 Mile Endurance Run Selection Process

. Prior to August 10th, all but $100 of the entry fee is refundable. Verification of your

8 hours

of trail work must be postmarked by August 15th.

Do not wait until the end of summer to try and schedule and perform your trail work

You may miss the deadline and no extensions will be given.

Failure to complete your trail work on time will result in cancellation of your entry.

Limited Entry: Due to limited access on the trail, entries for the Wasatch Front 100 are limited. We start approximately 260-290 runners each year. There is no waiting list and the online application process will not be available after the close of the application period.

Pre-Race Meeting: A mandatory pre-race trail briefing for runners and their crews will be conducted at 4:00 PM at Sugarhouse Park in Salt Lake City on Thursday, the day before the race. Please check the BULLETINS section of the website for the exact location and map as the race approaches. Runners must be weighed in, and race packets including the race number and t-shirts are to be picked up at starting at noon. Questions regarding the course will be answered and final instructions will be given at this time. Runners should have their drop bags completely prepared, marked, and ready for pick-up at Sugarhouse Park prior to the start of the 4:00 runners meeting.

Drop/Supply Bags: Drop bags will be transported to seven of the major aid stations in the race including the finish line. Runners wishing to make use of this service must make sure that their bags are securely tied and clearly marked.

Drop Bag Aid Stations

- 1) Francis Peak Maintenance Shed - 18.40 miles
- 2) Big Mountain Pass - 39.07 miles
- 3) Lambs Canyon - 52.48 miles
- 4) Upper Big Water - 60.94 miles
- 5) Brighton Lodge - 74.63 miles
- 6) Pole Line Pass - 82.31 miles
- 7) Finish at Soldier Hollow - 99.66 miles

Race Director: The race director for the Wasatch Front 100 is:

John Grobber

1344 South 800 East, Suite 202
Orem, Utah 84097