

AID STATION DRIVE-TO INSTRUCTIONS

SPECIAL NOTE: You will generally have plenty of time to negotiate twisting canyon roads. So, use extra care in your driving habits, especially at night. Let the runners have the speed. Slow Down!

DIRECTIONS TO START LINE

FROM SALT LAKE CITY: Follow I-15 going north from Salt Lake City. Take exit 324 (SR-89) to South Ogden by Lagoon. Continue to follow SR-89 toward Farmington/Kaysville for about 3.9 miles where you will take the 400N exit. The exit does a “T” onto Mountain Road. Head north (left) on Mountain Road, past the intersection for 400N until you reach 650 North. Swing east (to the right) on 650 past the Davis County Public Works building (650 North and 1400 East), and then the Davis County Animal Control Building. The East Mountain Wilderness Park appears on the left just below the shooting range. The park is about 1/2 mile east of highway 89. The address is either 1591 or 1588 E. 650 N., Kaysville, UT depending on the source you check.

FROM OGDEN AND POINTS NORTH: Take I-84 Exit 87 and take US-89 southbound. In 6.4 miles you will take the 400N exit. At the stop for 400N, turn left (east) and drive over US-89 until you “T” onto Mountain Road. Turn left again (north) on Mountain Road and until you reach 650 North. Swing east (to the right) on 650 past the Davis County Public Works building (650 North and 1400 East), and then the Davis County Animal Control Building. The East Mountain Wilderness Park appears on the left just below the shooting range. The park is about 1/2 mile east of highway 89. The address is either 1591 or 1588 E. 650 N., Kaysville, UT depending on the source you check.

FINISH

FROM BRIGHTON: From the Brighton aid station parking lot area, drive down the Brighton loop about 1/2 mile passing the Brighton Store area on the left as the Big Cottonwood Highway drops downhill. Take a right hand turn up the Guardsman Pass road toward Park City or Midway. About 3 miles from the Brighton Aid station the road makes a sharp elbow turn and continues uphill another 1/2 mile or so crossing over Guardsman Pass. Follow it downhill about 1.8 miles until the road splits in several directions. Take the road going downhill to Midway. After a little over 7 miles, it passes the Wasatch State Park campground. Take a right at the fork in the road past the campground and follow it until you can turn left onto the Snake Creek Road near the Wasatch State Park Visitor Center building with a little lake on its north side. Follow the Snake Creek Road as it goes east then turns south becoming Homestead Drive. Continue on Homestead Road as it bends from south to east. At 200 West, turn right (south) into Midway town. At Main Street turn left and continue east until Center Street (State Road 113). Turn right at this intersection and continue south on Center Street (SR 113) until Tate Lane (immediately before crossing the railroad tracks). Turn west (right) on Tate lane until meeting Stringtown road. NOTE, RUNNERS WILL BE ON THIS ROAD. Head south on Stringtown road past the Tate Barn on your left. Stay to the right at all intersections until you arrive at the finish line at the Wasatch State Park pavilion.

FROM SALT LAKE CITY: Take I-80 Eastbound up Parley's Canyon toward Park City/Cheyenne. Take Exit 146 Heber/Vernal to U.S. Highway 40 towards Heber, past Jordanelle State Park. Continue south into Heber City. Once in Heber City, take a right turn (west) onto 100 South Street (State Road 113) and head west for several miles into Midway City until you reach Center Street (also State Road 113 which turns south here). Turn left on Center (113) at this intersection and continue south a few miles until Tate Lane (immediately before the railroad tracks). Turn west (right) on Tate lane until meeting Stringtown road. NOTE, RUNNERS WILL BE ON THIS ROAD. Turn left (south) on Stringtown road and on past the Tate Barn to your left. Stay to the right at all intersections until you arrive at the finish line at the Wasatch State Park pavilion.
